

Sister Concetta Mitrano

While celebrating her 75th Jubilee in 2015, Sister Concetta Mitrano said her family was blessed. "We were nine children and four are religious — one priest and two Sisters." Those Sisters are Sister Ann Regina Mitrano, SSJ and Sister Cora Marie Mitrano, SSJ. Her brother is Father Joe Mitrano, CSB. Sister Concetta credited her mother for inspiring the children's calling. "My mother had great devotion to St. Theresa, the little Flower of Jesus."

Sister Concetta's home parish was St. Anthony Padua in Rochester. After graduating from Nazareth Academy in 1939 she entered the Congregation and taught first grade. "The children as well as their parents were beautiful, caring and loving people," recalled Sister Concetta in 2015. She taught at: Corpus Christi, Rochester; St. Patrick, Corning; St. Michael, Penn Yan; Holy Trinity, Webster; St. Joseph's Villa, Rochester; Holy Apostles, Rochester; St. Patrick, Mt. Morris; St. Anthony Padua, Rochester; Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester; and St. Joseph, Wayland.

Most recently, Sister Concetta was involved with the Prayer Ministry at the SSJ Motherhouse.
