

Sister Mary Kevin Moynihan

Sister Mary Kevin Moynihan entered the Congregation from Sacred Heart Cathedral in Rochester, New York.

Sister Mary Kevin was an educator. The early years of her teaching career were spent in Rochester at St. Monica, St. Francis Xavier and St. Theodore; in Dansville at St. Patrick and St. Mary; in Elmira's Sts. Peter and Paul. After receiving a Master's degree at Boston University, Sister taught in the Business Department at Nazareth Academy for 22 years. She continued on in the school in auxiliary positions for another 27 years. In total, Sister lived 50 years at the Academy.

Visiting with her large family and helping with 'babysitting and dog walking' gave her much joy. Sister was an avid gardener and celebrated 100 years of life in June 2015.
