

Sister Beverly Jones

Sister Beverly Jones, formerly Sister Agnes Louise, grew up in Interlaken, NY. Sister entered the Congregation in 1944 after feeling drawn to serve God in religious life while attending Nazareth College.

She studied at the Eastman School of Music where she earned a Master's Degree in music education. Sister went on to teach piano and band instruments at Nazareth Academy for 49 years. She also spent many years as the organist at Nazareth Academy and the SSJ Motherhouse.

Sister Beverly's second ministry was at the SSJ Infirmary as coordinator of volunteers.

"The volunteers were invaluable and I treasured that experience."

Most recently, Sister found herself involved in prayer ministry.

On the celebration of her 70th Jubilee in 2015, she had this reflection: "I am very grateful for all the blessings and graces God has given me through the years, and all the wonderful people, young and old, who have enriched my life. Deo gratias!"
