

Sister Teresina Curran

Sister Teresina Curran entered the Congregation when she was 14.

“I was impressed with the Sisters’ teaching, nursing and church work,” said Sister Teresina while celebrating her 75th Jubilee in 2016.

After her studies, she taught in parish schools in Elmira, Waverly, Ithaca, Perkinsville and Rochester. (Sister taught at St. Alphonsus, Auburn; Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester; Mother of Sorrows, Rochester; Sacred Heart, Rochester; St. Pius X, Rochester; Sacred Heart, Perkinsville; St. James, Waverly; SS Peter and Paul, Elmira; Immaculate Conception, Ithaca; St. Paul, Oswego; and St. Joseph Convent Infirmary.)

“My favorites were the children in first grade,” she said.

During her Jubilee celebration Sister explained that after a well-loved career in education, her aunt introduced her to the field of healthcare.

“She started me off as a nurse's aide—a ministry that I've dearly loved for more than 20 years. I worked at the Brightonian, Valley Manor, private duty, and met the needs of many of our Sisters, especially in the wee hours of the morning.”
