

Sister Patricia Schoelles – 50 Years

“When I first started out I put much emphasis on what I was doing to improve the SSJs, the church, society, the ministries I served. Now in my older years I focus much more on how the communities I am part of experience the presence and action of God and how together people and groups cooperate with the coming of God’s Kingdom.”