

Sister Sheila Walsh (formerly Sister St. Thomas) – 60 Years

“God called me to religious life, specifically the Sisters of Saint Joseph,” said Sister Sheila Walsh (formerly Sister St. Thomas).

“My happy 60 years enabled me to serve in a variety of ministries: 14 years as an elementary school teacher, 10 years as a director of religious education, three years as pastoral associate and 34 years as a real estate broker. (Sister’s ministries include St. John the Evangelist, Greece; St. Mary, Auburn; St. Anne, Rochester; Holy Rosary, Rochester; St. Patrick, Corning; Sacred Heart Cathedral, Rochester; St. Monica, Rochester; Eastern Real Estate Service; Bishop Sheen Ecumenical Housing Foundation; and Sheila Walsh Realty.)

“The students and people I met throughout the years brought me closer to God! To all of them I say thank you.”
