

Sister Mark Rumble

Sister Mark Rumble was taught by the Sisters of Saint Joseph in elementary and secondary school, saying she was impressed by their dedication and happy spirit.

“I felt God's call in high school, but wasn't yet ready to become a Sister myself,” said Sister Mark while celebrating her 60th Jubilee anniversary in 2013. “After working for four years, I knew it was time to answer God's call.”

Sister Mark spent 26 years teaching first grade in the Ogdensburg Diocese, including seven years as principal and superior at Holy Name School in Tupper Lake, NY. She also taught for 13 years in Rochester at Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Guardian Angels Schools.

“I enjoyed teaching the little ones and watching their amazing progress. I must say, they also taught me a few things too!” said Sister Mark during her Jubilee celebration.

Most recently, Sister was active in Motherhouse services.

“I am thankful for the opportunities, challenges and joys of sharing my life in a community of women who are called by God to be Sisters of Saint Joseph,” she said.
