

Sister Cora Marie Mitrano – 75 Years

“It’s a wonderful life!” says Sister Cora Marie Mitrano.

“I grew up in St. Anthony of Padua Parish and attended grammar school there. After graduating, I went to Nazareth Academy.

“My first teaching assignment was at Holy Apostles School where I taught for five happy years. Next, in 1952, I was assigned to teach at my alma mater, Nazareth Academy. I enjoyed seeing generations of students graduate from Nazareth Academy in my 62 years there.

“God has blessed me with good health, and I am now enjoying my volunteer work at the Motherhouse in our Office for Mission Advancement where I keep in touch with Nazareth Academy alumnae, and our SSJ donors.

“I pray every day for my family and for all the wonderful people God has sent into my life.”
