

Sister Beatrice Ganley – 70 Years

Sister Beatrice Ganley credits grace for her good fortunes in life. “Grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will bring me home,” says Sister Beatrice. “It is all about grace: the grace belonging to a group of women whose whole lives are devoted to seeking God, the grace of meaningful work in my various ministries, the grace of friendship, support and understanding. I often wonder, ‘How did I get so lucky?’”

Sister Beatrice entered the Congregation from Blessed Sacrament parish in Rochester. She is a writer and an educator. She taught at Nazareth College; St. Bridget, Rochester; St. Patrick, Seneca Falls; Nazareth Hall Cadet School; St. Agnes, Avon; St. Theodore, Rochester; St. Monica, Rochester; St. Augustine, Rochester; St. John the Evangelist, Greece; and Nazareth Academy.
