

Sister Elizabeth Snyder (formerly Sister Lisette) – 60 Years

Sister Elizabeth Snyder, formerly Sister Lisette, says a lifelong love of learning started when she was just a young girl attending a small country school. “It was a family-based Catholic school and as I remember, the education I received there helped me build confidence and a desire to be a teacher.” She became a Sister of Saint Joseph and pursued a ministry as a teacher at St. Monica, Rochester; St. Paul, Oswego; Our Lady of Lourdes, Rochester; Blessed Sacrament, Rochester; and at Nazareth Hall Middle School.

“I loved my years in education, working with teachers and staff and the children,” says Sister Elizabeth. “Children have always been my passion and my greatest desire has been to make a difference in their lives.”

After 15 years of teaching and 31 years of being a principal, she retired from education. “My ministry and story continue as I now am engaged in hospitality ministry at our Motherhouse under the title of Hospitality Director,” explains Sister Elizabeth. “Only our gracious God knows what will unfold in my life along the journey of service for Him through others.”
