

Sister Genevieve Borgyon

Sister Genevieve Borgyon, formerly Sister Mary Elizabeth, said during her 80th Jubilee celebration in 2016 that as a young woman she was drawn to becoming a Sister of Saint Joseph because it would mean she could be a teacher and be close to God.

Her ministry was education. She taught in Catholic schools including: St. Patrick in Corning, St. Ambrose, St. Augustine, St. Mary in Elmira, St. John in Greece, St. Stephen in Geneva, Nazareth Hall Cadet School as well as Nazareth Academy, St. Anne, St. Thomas More, St. Pius X and Trinity Montessori.

“I am grateful and have pleasant memories about ministering in Corning, Elmira, Geneva and Rochester,” said Sister Genevieve.

Most recently, she devoted her time to the SSJ prayer ministry. Sister would have celebrated 85 years as an SSJ in 2021.
