

Sister Josepha Twomey

After attending William H. Seward School in Auburn from kindergarten through 4th grade, Sister Josepha Twomey's remaining grade school years were spent being taught by the Sisters of Saint Joseph. "I knew at first sight that the Sisters of Saint Joseph would be a part of my future," said Sister Josepha during her 60th Jubilee celebration in 2013.

Sister's ministries included Our Lady of Lourdes, Rochester; St. Mary, Dansville; Corpus Christi, Rochester; St. Elizabeth, Selma AL; Guardian Angels, Rochester; St. Lucy, Rochester; Immaculate Conception, Rochester; Elmira Correctional Facility; Southport Correctional Facility; and Sisters Care, Elmira.

While reflecting in 2013, Sister Josepha said, "My happiest moments in 60 years are myriad. One such would be greeting my parents at their visit to my mission in Selma, Alabama. Another special point is the year I spent in prison ministry. I had finally fulfilled a childhood prediction often repeated by my parents. 'Someday, Kid, you will end up in prison.' Although spoken with humor, I feel certain my parents would be proud and pleased with the ways I have served God's people."
