

Sister Joanne Clark

For over 40 years Sister Joanne Clark served in numerous Catholic Schools, teaching young students. Sister Joanne's first mission started out at Sacred Heart School in Watertown in 1944. Having the privilege to teach piano and organ to students through those years was an added plus. Saint Jerome's in East Rochester was Sister's final teaching assignment in 1984.

With Sister's classroom days behind, she chose to enrich the lives of our elderly population as a member of the former SSJ ministry Sisters Care, spending time and sharing prayer with those special seniors. Most recently, Sister Joanne spent her days involved with prayer ministry at the Motherhouse.

"I am forever grateful for my calling to the Sisters of Saint Joseph," she said in 2018 during her 75th Jubilee celebration.
