

Sister Jacqueline Robinson

Sister Jacqueline Robinson (formerly Sister Constantia) spent over 30 years ministering in education. Sister Jackie taught at St. John the Evangelist, Greece; St. Monica, St. Augustine, St. Anthony of Padua, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, St. Ambrose, Rochester; St. Agnes, Avon; St. Anthony, Elmira; St. Mary, Canandaigua; St. Patrick, Corning; St. Stephen, Geneva; St. Mary, Auburn; St. Michael, Penn Yan; Immaculate Conception, Ithaca; and DeSales High School, Geneva.

Following her career in education, Sister changed paths and began work as a scheduling coordinator for vehicle repairs at Sam LoVetro Automotive in Rochester. She later spent 10 years as parish secretary at St. Anthony's in Rochester before serving as pastoral visitor at North Park in ElderOne's Adult Daycare Center. Most recently, Sister Jackie served in the prayer ministry at the SSJ Motherhouse.