

Sister Margot Mann – 60 Years

“As a child in St. Monica’s School, I thought God was calling me to be a Sister,” says Sister Margot Mann. “This call became stronger through my high school years.”

Sister Margot’s ministries started when she became a first-grade teacher at St. Thomas More School followed by teaching at St. Lawrence School. She then changed course as a Guidance Counselor at St. Agnes High School, Rochester and Guidance Director at DeSales High School, Geneva. At Our Lady of Mercy and St. Patrick, Corning Parishes she served as Pastoral Associate. After a chaplain residency she became a chaplain at St. Joseph’s Hospital, Elmira. Returning to Rochester she was appointed Director of Volunteers at the Motherhouse.

She worked at receptionist at The Episcopal Church Home and took the opportunity to volunteer with several organizations. Through “Generation 2” she volunteered at School #4 in Rochester where she related to first graders. In her words, “I came full circle!”

“I feel fulfilled as I recall my ministries. Each one has been challenging and grace-filled,” reflects Sister Margot. “I am grateful that I answered God’s call 60 years ago to become a Sister of Saint Joseph.”
