

Sister Sheila Briody – 50 Years

Sister Sheila Briody entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph on September 3, 1969 and vowed her Perpetual Profession on May 12, 1978. Sister Sheila's ministries included: teacher (St. Monica's, St. Agnes H.S), chaplain (St. Agnes H.S., SUNY Brockport), formation director (SSJ), and mental health counselor (Catholic Family Center, Samaritan Pastoral Counseling Center, St. Joseph's Neighborhood Center).

“Through each of these ministries, it has been my honor to serve the Charism of the Sisters of Saint Joseph ‘uniting neighbor with neighbor and neighbor with God.’”
