The inspiration behind a special project for our Sisters.

Dear Friends,

Each Lenten season we are given the opportunity to focus on our lives and reflect on how we are living in line with God’s desires for us. We get forty days to grow as a person and as a follower of Christ—to recognize our faults, to repent, and to receive God’s mercy and love. We also spend this time, in part, focusing on how we could be doing more for others—showing outward signs of our Christian love for one another.

In my own Lenten journey, I have been drawn to a reflection by Sister Norma Pimentel entitled “Time to Break Something” in which she shares a story about her three-year-old goddaughter feverishly telling the adults around her to not touch the porcelain figurines in the living room. Sister Norma uses the anecdote as an example of how as children we are taught to control our actions, to not break things. She says, “But in God’s house, we are required to look around and react when we see something out of place.” She continues, “Behaving as God’s children does not always mean that we are quiet, immobilized, seated in a pew with our hands folded on our lap.”

She emboldens us to take notice of our surroundings. To “Break through to a better understanding of what’s happening in the world and participate in the atonement for the sins of all humankind.” She concludes, “we must break our habits of apathy and indifference.” We must “break the culture of turning a blind eye to those in need...speaking out and speaking up for our brothers and sisters in Christ who need our help.”

As Sisters of Saint Joseph, we are committed to seeking out and responding to the needs of our neighbors in timely and compassionate ways. In the pages ahead, we share the continuing work of our Sisters and partners in ministry as we move toward creating a world of positive engagement and welcome for all.

We are grateful for your part in this work through your support and generosity. YOU help us extend God’s presence. Please know of our love and gratitude as we continue to hold you close in prayer. And may we all draw closer to God and remember His great love for us during this Lenten season.

New Brazil Coordination Team Elected

A new team of SSJs is leading the way in the SSJ Brazil Mission. The Sisters elected a new Regional Coordination Team in January, naming Sister Ireny Rosa da Silva as Coordinator, and Sisters Maureen Finn and Maria José Monteiro de Oliveria as Councilors. The new team is the official contact for the SSJ Leadership Team in Rochester. They are responsible for sharing communications and delegating tasks to the eight Sisters who make up the Brazil Mission.

NEWS & NOTES

SSJs Assist in Tornado Relief

The SSJ Alabama Mission helped with clean-up efforts after a series of tornadoes tore through Selma, Alabama in January. The storm caused at least six deaths in a neighboring county and damaged hundreds of homes and businesses. Sisters Kathleen Navarra and Patricia Flass found shelter during the storm and remained safe. Afterwards, the Sisters worked with The Edmundite Missions in that area to provide clothing, shelter and food to storm victims.

Helping the Homeless

Sister Mary Ann Sliwa collects the winter apparel from the boxes each week and organizes the items into bags, detailing what is in each bag

A Rochester Police Department initiative to help the homeless during the winter months got a major boost from SSJs and friends. Since December, collection boxes have been set up at the Motherhouse for donations of mittens, gloves, scarves, hats and socks. The winter apparel is collected from the boxes each week and organized into bags that are then distributed to those in need as part of Rochester's Homeless Outreach program. A collection box remains by the Motherhouse Receptionist Desk for those interested in donating items.

SSJs Receive SOAR! Grant

The Sisters are grateful recipients of a grant from SOAR! (Supporting Our Aging Religious) once again. The funds will be used to help purchase a new phone system at the Motherhouse. The current system, which has been in place for over 20 years, is deteriorating and outdated. Replacement parts are no longer produced, and there is no service provider. Our Sisters and retired priests who reside at the Motherhouse need phones for personal contacts, business, professional activities, and in times of emergencies. In addition to the SOAR! grant, funds raised through the 2022 Sisters and Spirits Paddle Call will go towards installing a new system.

A Unifying Message

A message of faith and hope now greets visitors at the Motherhouse. A sign that reads "Uniting Neighbor to Neighbor and All with God" was installed near the Welcome Island near the front entrance this past Fall. The project was a collaboration of the SSJ Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee, the Leadership Team and the Office for Mission Advancement. We hope and pray that the message, which speaks to the SSJ spirit and core values, can inspire actions of reconciliation and healing in our world.

SISTERS RECEIVE PRESTIGIOUS AWARDS HONORING IMPACTFUL MINISTRY WORK IN VOCATIONS, EDUCATION, AND THE COMMUNITY.

Sister Donna Del Santo receives the Outstanding Recognition Award by the National Religious Vocation Conference

SISTER DONNA DEL SANTO was recognized by the National Religious Vocation Conference for her lifelong contributions to vocation ministry. Sister Donna has been the SSJ Vocation Director for over 20 years. In November, she was one of four people to receive the NRVC's Outstanding Recognition Award during the biennial convocation in Spokane, WA. Only 39 NRVC members have received the award since its inception in 1990. Speaking about her vocation ministry, Sister Donna says, "I have found in these last 20 plus years that when I could help a young person discover what it was they were made for, what made them come alive...that they also discovered a deeper relationship with the world, God, and in some cases...the Church." She continues, "My life has been graced to accompany volunteers and women in discernment for Religious Life. I have been blessed to have over 1,000 teens and young adults welcomed into our community, in one way or another, primarily as seekers and servants and a few have even become my Sisters! And for all of this and so much more, I say thank you!"

Sister Carol Cimino receives the 2022 Lighting the Fire for Catholic Education by the Catholic School Administrators Association of New York State

SISTER CAROL CIMINO was honored by the Catholic School Administrators Association of New York State. Sister Carol joined Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan and five others in receiving the 2022 Lighting the Fire for Catholic Education award at the CSAANYS Gathering and Gala celebration in November. The award honors those who have dedicated their careers to support Catholic education in New York State. Sister Carol has served as teacher, principal, development director, and consultant for a number of Catholic institutions. In 2018, she retired as the Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Buffalo where she oversaw 50 elementary and high schools in an eight-county area of Western New York. "I have been blessed to have spent 57 years in the field of Catholic education," says Sister Carol. "The people with whom I've worked, the students whom I have taught, and the history I have witnessed have all taught me about the resilience of the human soul. What an honor it is to stand with other educators." Today she continues her active role in Catholic education as a consultant.

SISTER CHRISTINE WAGNER was selected for a 2022 New York State Senate Commendation Award. The award honors "exceptional individuals who have made a difference in the community. Recipients also are leaders in their community who enrich the social, health and educational well-being of their fellow citizens." Sister Chris is the founding executive director of St. Joseph's Neighborhood Center which provides healthcare services and more to those who are uninsured or underinsured. She currently volunteers in the Center's development office. State Senator Jeremy Cooney, who nominated Sister Chris, presented her with the honor during the Winter Awards Ceremony in December. In receiving the award, Sister Chris says, "I was surprised and humbled to receive this recognition. The Commendation really belongs to the village of mission-driven people that surround me." She continues, "At the Center we receive profound life lessons about survival from the patients and clients. This Commendation is not a signal to stop, but encouragement to keep looking for the next best way to serve."

Deepening the SSJ Connection

Last summer, SSJ Associates Jennifer and Hendrik van Edig joined several Rochester Sisters at the U.S. Federation of Sisters of Saint Joseph Event 2022 in St. Louis, Missouri. This was the first time Associates from the 16 U.S. congregations that make up the family of Saint Joseph were invited to attend the Federation Event as Federation members. For Jennifer and Hendrik, the experience inspired plans for future endeavors as well as new connections that continue today.

Since the conference, Jennifer has taken part in several virtual meetings with Federation-level Associates. The meetings take place once a month via Zoom and attract participants from around the country. In addition to learning more about each congregation's Associates program, the group has discussed the possibility of visiting Le Puy, France, the founding city of the SSJs, to help deepen their knowledge of the history of the Sisters' mission work.

Some of that history was highlighted during the Federation Event. Jennifer and Hendrik and the other attendees had the opportunity to visit Cahokia, Illinois, where the first SSJs arrived from France to begin their ministry in the U.S. in 1836 and the Carondelet Motherhouse in Missouri. "The excursion opened our eyes to the hard lives of the early settlers and the Sisters," said Jennifer and Hendrik. "We realized that building a small wooden log church in the late 18th century in a frontier location in the central U.S. must have required at least as much personal effort, if not more, than building a cathedral in Europe. Very enlightening!"

One specific aspect of the Carondelet Motherhouse that intrigued the couple was the historical significance of the weeping mulberry trees in the courtyard. The first SSJ

Motherhouse in France had mulberry trees on its property that were used to feed the silkworms of which thread was spun to make lace. At the time, the Sisters supported themselves much in part by making lace—a common trade in that region of France. Inspired by the connection, Jennifer and Hendrik said they are now working with Sister Jean Rodman and fellow Associate Mary Ellyn Scanandoah on propagating a weeping mulberry tree to eventually place in the Rochester Motherhouse courtyard.

Perhaps the most moving component of the Federation Event, said the van Edigs, was the overall theme. Entitled "Radically Transforming Community," much of the discussions and presentations centered around ending racial oppression. The conversations inspired Jennifer and Hendrik to reflect on how they could help as SSJ Associates. "We have been exploring the idea of further involvement and learning from the SSJ Alabama Mission," they said. "We are proud that the Rochester Congregation has this mission and that it was instrumental in the origins of the civil rights movement."

From Heart to Hand: A Project of Love

For over 25 years a group of women known as the SSJ Collaborators, which includes former and current members of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, have continued working together in the spirit and charism of the Congregation: "uniting neighbor with neighbor and neighbor with God." One of the women, Anne deMare of Rochester, a former member of the SSJs for 30 years, has remained connected in many ways. One unique way is through the creation and production of wooden cremation urns for Sisters. Anne shares the inspiration and meticulous process behind the project.

"The idea started when Sister Elaine Englert admired a hardwood music box I had made for Hope Hall's Christmas sale as the school's Woodworking Teacher. To my surprise, Sister Elaine said the music box was beautiful and looked like it could be used as an urn!

"As the idea evolved, Sister Elaine contacted Sister Diana Dolce, Executive Director of Hope Hall School, to ask if I could design and produce about 10 urns for the SSJs to purchase. The SSJ Leadership Team had been exploring the idea and it just felt right to have the handmade urns created by someone so connected to the Congregation.

"So, last winter, before retiring from teaching, I was asked by Sister Diana if I would be interested in creating hardwood urns for Sisters who desire this type of burial. The answer was, of course, yes! So, a single prototype was designed and produced using certain specifications from the Congregation's funeral director.

"The process involved using pieces of donated hardwood scrap such as oak, cherry, mahogany, ash, and walnut that I arranged in various configurations with an eye on color and grain combinations. The wood pieces were then planed and glued together, cut to size, and sanded. Next the box was assembled to the exact required size using glue, screws and clamps and a final sanding was done.

"After each box was completed, a special oil to preserve the wood was applied inside and out. Finally, to mark it as a sacred box, a cross was added to the top and on one side of the urn.

"Each box is one of a kind: single, beautiful, and unique...as is each Sister's life whose ashes will be interred in them."

Expanding Our Ministry of Presence

The Sisters of Saint Joseph continue to expand their reach in serving the Dear Neighbor. Sisters Anne Alderman and Marciana Koesterer are currently ministering in the Trumansburg area—sharing their prayers and presence with people of all ages.

The Sisters have become familiar faces at Ithaca College and Cornell University. They visit the campuses each week, attending afternoon Mass and joining students for community dinners and conversation through each schools' ministry group.

Sister Anne also provides spiritual direction for students via Zoom and for people throughout the Finger Lakes and Southern Tier regions. "I usually go to Geneva four times a month to meet with people from the northern reaches of my ministry - seeing people from places like Rochester, Lima, Newark, and Marion," she says. "I go to Elmira three or four times a month where I meet with directees from the Elmira, Horseheads, Corning area in the Faith Formation Center (the old St. Casimir's School), as well as meeting with our Southern Tier SSJ Associates, and attending my own spiritual directors' peer supervision sessions."

Adding that she's on the road more than she is at home, Sister Anne also continues her presence in Dundee where she spent over 20 years as the Executive Director of the Cobblestone Springs Retreat Center. Today she helps with Meals on Wheels and volunteers at the Dundee Food Pantry each month.

Meantime, Sister Marciana continues her healthcare ministry by doing in-home care through the Finger Lakes Independence Center. A nurse for over 50 years, Sister Marciana helps patients with personal care, exercise, meals, administering medications, and more. "I'm glad to be back nursing," she says in regards to the pause in care due to the Covid pandemic. "Both families and I are aware of each having our shots up to date."

Sister Anne and Sister Marciana come together to provide additional opportunities for quiet prayer and sharing. Each week they lead a "Prayer for Healing and Harmony" that draws a dozen attendees from St. James Church in Trumansburg and neighboring churches of other faiths. The gathering involves a brief reflection related to healing or harmony and about 20 minutes of silent prayer followed by sharing.

"It has become a treasured time of shared silence and deep sharing among those who attend," say the Sisters.

They also lead a workshop at St. James two evenings a month in Taizé prayer. Taizé is a simple, meditative form of worship that they hope, "provides some time for quiet, reflection and sharing in the midst of our hectic lives."

As they stay busy and engaged with their travels and ministry, Sisters Anne and Marciana say they find great joy in their work and hope their presence provides rich and meaningful opportunities for community and sharing with their Dear Neighbors.
