Abstract: The personal and scholarly files of Msgr. William H. Shannon, professor of religious studies at Nazareth College of Rochester (1946-1982) and founding president of the International Thomas Merton Society. Included are articles, talks and presentations, homilies, research files, journals, and correspondence.

Biography of William H. Shannon

William H. Shannon was born December 6, 1917, in Rochester, N.Y. He grew up in St. Salome Parish in Irondequoit, N.Y., and was educated at the parish school, St. Andrew's Seminary (Rochester), and St. Bernard's Seminary (Rochester). He was ordained on June 5, 1943, by Bishop James E. Kearney at Sacred Heart Cathedral and was named a domestic prelate (monsignor) in 1966.

His sole parish assignment was as assistant pastor at Sacred Heart Cathedral from 1943 to 1945. When he was appointed professor of religion at Nazareth College of Rochester in 1946, he began an association with Nazareth and the Sisters of St. Joseph that continued for the rest of his life.

Msgr. Shannon earned a master's degree in history from Canisius College in 1949 and a doctorate in history from the University of Ottawa in 1953, and he completed post-doctoral work at McMaster University. He was named full professor at Nazareth in 1958 and was honored as professor emeritus upon his retirement in 1982.

While a faculty member and chair of the college's Department of Religion, he became a widely known and respected teacher of theology, Scripture, and Church history. Committed to the spirit and reforms of the Second Vatican Council, he wrote often about Biblical and liturgical renewals, authority in the Church, and interreligious dialogue. He served as chaplain of the college from 1949 to 1975, and as chaplain to the Sisters of St. Joseph from 1980 until his death in 2012.

In the 1970s Msgr. Shannon developed a deep interest in the writing of Thomas Merton. His research and contacts with other Merton scholars led him to play a key role in organizing the International Thomas Merton Society (for which he served as founding president), and his extensive writing on the Cistercian monk's life and works established him as one of the world's foremost authorities on Merton. He authored and edited many books and articles including several volumes of Merton's letters and essays, The Thomas Merton Encyclopedia, and Silent Lamp, an acclaimed biography. He also wrote extensively on a range of topics including spirituality, non-violence, moral issues, liturgy, Scripture, and prayer.

After his retirement, Msgr. Shannon continued lecturing and attending conferences worldwide. His correspondence suggests the many associations he developed during his long and prolific career. His distinctions include an endowed chair in Catholic studies and a lecture series at Nazareth College, both of which bear his name. He received honorary degrees from Nazareth College, St. Bernard's Institute of Theology and Ministry, and St. Bonaventure University.

In addition to his scholarship, Msgr. Shannon will be remembered for the spiritual guidance he offered to many, his commitment to non-violence, the depth and insight of his homilies, and his perspective on faith.

Scope and Contents

The papers of William H. Shannon cover the many areas of interest of his professional life, including Scripture, liturgy, the Papacy and authority in the Roman Catholic Church, the Second Vatican Council, non-violence and peace, spirituality, and moral issues such as end-of-life decisions. The progression of Msgr. Shannon's thought and teaching on these topics can be traced in his published articles, presentations, and homilies. While some material in the collection is from 1940 to 1960, the bulk dates from the 1970s to 2012.

Of particular interest are his files on Thomas Merton which include articles, talks, and correspondence with Merton scholars around the world. Widely recognized as one of the foremost authorities on Merton, Msgr. Shannon wrote prolifically about the Cistercian monk's life and works, forming many associations with other followers of Merton and, in some cases, with those who knew him.

Also of interest are his homilies, the majority given in his role as chaplain to the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester (1980-2012). Included are a complete set of his liturgical year homilies (1980-1981 through 2011-2012); homilies for feast days, secular holidays, and special events; and funeral homilies for Sisters of St. Joseph (some of which have been published in Cloud of Witnesses: Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester Remembered, 2006 and 2008).
