

Sister Dolores Anne Huether – 75 Years

As a former business teacher, Sister Dolores Anne Huether is proud of having taught so many children the necessary skills for employment. Sister Dolores Anne credits her assignment as a secretary at St. Joseph's Hospital for giving her the background to be an effective teacher. "I loved being assigned to St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira. I also enjoyed my years at Mt. Carmel High School in Auburn where I taught business to both boys and girls." Sister also taught at St. Patrick in Dansville, and St. Joseph's Villa and Nazareth Academy in Rochester.

Reflecting on her 75th Jubilee, Sister says she has learned to laugh a lot and be flexible. "I have received many blessings from living in community with the Sisters." Another facet of her gratitude comes from "sharing life with my nieces and nephews – a mix of many blessings, sorrows, and joys." She is currently involved in the prayer ministry.
