

Sister Dolores Bachman (formerly Sister Innocentia) – 60 Years

Sister Dolores Bachman, formerly Sister Innocentia, entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph from Holy Family Parish in Auburn, NY.

“I was a classroom teacher for 49 years, serving in three different dioceses: St. Augustine, Rochester; St. Thomas More, Brighton; St. Mary, Elmira; St. Aloysius, St. Mary and Blessed Trinity, Auburn; St. Elizabeth, and Queen of Peace, Selma, AL; St. Paul, Oswego; and St. Francis-St. Stephen, Geneva. I am grateful for all the children, parents and teachers whose lives have touched mine.

“Since retiring from teaching in 2009, I continue to minister through the SSJ Sisters Care program and help with Congregational services.

“God has blessed me and called me to a wonderful life of love and service and for this I am truly grateful.”
